Bar-B-Q Secret Thai Shrimp

2 3/16 lb Black Tiger Shrimp, shell on Spicy Thai Dressing

Commercial Thai Sauce preparations are available such as "President's Choice - Spicy Thai Dressing" (in Canada). In a stainless steel or ceramic bowl, marinate the Shell-on Black Tiger Shrimp (rinsed if defrosted) for 1-1/2 to 2 hours in sufficient Thai sauce to cover. Do not marinate longer or shrimp will start to cook in the marinade and take on a rubbery texture. Barbecue shrimp in shells over hot coals 3-4 minutes each side. The shells keep the meat moist. Serve immediately with a suitable dipping sauce.

The most famous is cochinita pibil; a suckling pig, marinated with this spice paste and wrapped in banana leaves, baked in a Mayan earth oven called a pib. 1/2 md Onion ; diced	2 tb Cilantro ; minced
2 Cl Garlic ; pressed	4 8 oz catfish fillets ; skinl
1 c Vegetable oil	1 c Tomatoes ; peel, dice, chill

Recipe by: Chile Pepper Magazine - Sep/Oct 1990 In this part of the country, the table fish of choice is the catfish--at least it's the most common. You can usually order this fish prepared any way that you like it, as long as it's fried. Now, I've no complaints with a well-fried catfish, but there had to be another way.

So a couple of nights ago, a few friends were over and we tried out this idea. Our "impartial" panel of judges decided that this was a definite keeper, and we are pleased to pass it on to you, literally, hot off the grill

Combine the first eight ingredients in a blender and coarsely blend. Place the filets in a non-reactive container large enough to hold them in a single layer. Pour the marinade over the filets and cover. Turn the filets once after thirty minutes. After a total marinating time of no more than one hour (any longer and they'll start to fall apart), grill them quickly over very hot mesquite coals, about 2-4 minutes per side, basting with the marinade. Place each filet on a plate, and top with 1/4 cup of chilled chopped tomato Place pork loin on foil and pour the above mixture down center. Tie with string to hold mixture in and fold up sides of foil. Place on top of grill, cover, and add two handfuls wet mesquite chips to hot coals.

Prepare basting sauce by heating together 1/2 stick butter, 1 tablespoon honey, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, and 4 tablespoons water. After loin begins to brown, baste every 10 minutes.

Prepare shrimp sauce by heating 1/2 stick butter. Add 1 tablespoon chopped onions, 1/4 cup green onions and 1/4 cup parsley, saute five minutes. Add 1/2 teaspoon thyme, 1/2 teaspoon white pepper, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon oregano, 1 dash Tabasco sauce, 2 dashes Worcestershire sauce, shrimp and 1/4 pound crawfish tails. Saute 5 minutes. Add whipping cream and saute 3 minutes.

Remove loin from grill and cut into 1-inch slices. Pour a portion of shrimp sauce over each slice and enjoy!

Smoked Fish

Recipe by: Dave Frary Along the East coast where I live there's always an abundant supply of fresh fish. In the Spring there's fresh mackerel, and the Bluefish in the Fall, are my favorites for smoking.

This recipe will work with Mackerel, Bluefish, Salmon, and even Cod.

If you catch the fish yourself, cut through their throat to bleed them while they're still alive. Put them head down in a bucket so they'll pump out as much blood as possible. Wash and chill the whole fish until you can fillet them.

Early in the morning of the day you're going to smoke wash 4 to 6 fillets and place them in a brine made from: 1 quart cold water 1/3 cup Kosher salt 1/4 cup sugar 1 teaspoon black, red or other peppers (spices) to taste

Mix this together in a glass or enamel bowl add the fish and submerge the fillets with a weight to hold them under the brine. Brine the fillets in the refrigerator from 2 to 4 hours (longer makes the fish saltier).

Remove the fillets and wipe dry with paper towels. Place them, skin side down, on several thicknesses of dry paper towels and let them air dry for several hours. The surface is dry enough when your finger sticks to the flesh.

Hot smoke over a 250 degree wood fire for about 2 hours or until the fillets are firm to the touch (like medium rare steak).

Peel off the skin and enjoy.

Smoked Salmon or Tuna Spread

1 cn Tuna or salmon

For sandwiches that are a real treat, drain the liquid from canned salmon or canned tuna. Place in a greased baking dish that will fit easily into your smoker. Flake fish with a fork, spreading it out over the dish. Place in a preheated smoker and smoke for one hour or the time it takes for the fuel to exhaust itself. Remove from smoker, drain excess oil, and allow to cool.

Prepare your favorite sandwich spread with smoked flavored fish.

Smoked Salmon Rub Ala Bear

1 lg Salmon or Trout	1 c Salt (iodized, kosher, sea)
1 c Brown Sugar	1/4 c Lemon Pepper

Mix all the dry items

Lay out a piece of plastic wrap long enough to well wrap both filets.

Lay a filet scales down 5 inches up from the bottom of the wrap (lengthwise so the ends are left open).

Pack all the "rub" on top of the filet.

Lay the other side face down into the "rubbed" fish. You should now have the semblance of a sugar stuffed fishie.

Flip the bottom of the wrap up over the top of the fish and wrap that sucker tightly (leaving the ends open).

Put on a cookie rack (or some such) in a baking dish and in the frig. Let sit 24 hours. Brown water will roll out of the ends that you left open.

Remove from wrap and scrap off excess rub.

Let stand and air dry for 3 hours.

Smoke at 160 degrees for 2-4 hours (when it starts to flake apart with a fork it's done)

I've always used cherry wood for it.

STEP ONE: Prepare the Barbecue Sauce-- Start a charcoal fire in outdoor grill. When coals are white-hot, cover with soaked wood chips. Place chipotle and serrano chiles, tomatoes, red onion, 3 red bell peppers, turnip, and garlic on grill and cover. Adjust dampers to reduce heat and smoke vegetables for about 20 minutes. Add carrots, mustard, and vinegar-sugar mixture to stock and simmer until carrots are done. Puree sauce in blender and strain. Return to heat, add ketchup, and reduce until sauce coats the back of a spoon. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Smoking a Salmon

Tried it once, it was fabulous. Brine the salmon in the refrigerator in just enough brine to cover the filleted half-fish (skin side down). The brine should have 6 tab. salt per quart water, I use rock salt for water softeners cause it's cheap. Brine the salmon till the following morning. Meanwhile, cut both ends out of a #2 1/2 can and place it on the fire grate (where the ashes fall thru). Fill it with glowing charcoal, and place your salmon in smoking position. The purpose of the can is to confine the fire so the whole affair stays cool (90F or so). Just let the fish sit in the smoky smoker for 24-36 hours. At the end of that time it will have the consistency of raw fish, but will be the best lox you ever tasted. I used mesquite charcoal with a little hickory wood thrown in. Keep the fire small and the temp low! Good luck, and send me a pound! Dave (where PriceClub has salmon for $2 per pound sometimes). --

Steamed Fish & Spinach

16 oz Pkg frzn Fish Fillets,thawed	1/4 ts Dried Tarragon or Basil
1/2 c Chopped Onion	1/8 ts Salt
1 x Clove Garlic, minced	1/8 ts Pepper
1 tb Olive or vegetable Oil	10 oz Pkg frozen chopped Spinach *
1/4 c Dry White Wine	1 x Green or Sweet Red Pepper **

* thawed and well drained  cut into thin strips Cut block of fish crosswise into 4 equal pieces.

In a small skillet, cook onion and garlic in hot oil till tender. Remove from heat. Stir in wine, tarragon or basil, salt, and pepper. Return to heat and boil gently about 2 minutes or until most of the liquid has evaporated. Remove skillet from heat and set aside.

Place 1/8 of the spinach on four 12x18" pieces of heavy foil. Place 1 portion of fish on each portion of spinach. Spoon onion mixture evenly over fish. Top with remaining spinach and the green pepper strips. Bring up long edges of foil and, leaving a little space for steam expansion, seal tightly with a double fold. Then fold short ends to seal.

Grill foil packets, seam side up, directly over medium coals about 20 minutes or till fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Turn packets over twice.

Whole Flounder with Herb Marinade

3 tb Olive Oil	1/4 ts Salt
2 tb Fresh Herbs; chopped	Ground Pepper
1 ts Garlic; minced	2 lb Flounder

Combine oil, herbs, garlic, salt and pepper; set aside for up to 2 hours. Dress or pan-dress the fish the fish, rinse well, and pat dry. Slash the thicker part of both fillets with 1 or 2 shallow diagonal cuts through the skin and into the meat. Set aside 1 tb marinade and rub the rest all over the surface of the fish and into the cuts. Set aside on a plate for 15 minutes.

Build a medium-hot fire in a charcoal grill. Oil the grill rack and place fish dark-skin side down. Grill 4 minutes, or until skin releases easily from grill. Turn, baste with any marinade remaining on the plate, and continue grilling until a thin skewer easily penetrates thickest part of the fish, another 2-4 minutes.
